Mr. EDITOR.—I send you an extract from fore a U. S. Commissioner, of Mr. Fisher, mate of the ship Planter, of Nantucket.

In this examination the Commissioners had occasion to consider the accountability of Capt. Hussey for the killing of one of his crew. It appears that the Commissioner considered that there was justifiable cause for the killing. Accordingly Mr. Fisher was thing one meets with in the lower country, ed about me to discover its locality, but in been, had he been on trial.
